CLING NOT TO EARTH.

Cling not to earth—there's nothing there,
However lov'd—however fair,
But on its features still must wear
The impress of mortality.

The voyager on the boundless deep,
Within his barque may smile or sleep—
But bear him on—he will not weep
To leave its wild uncertainty.

Cling not to earth—as well we may
Trust Asia's serpent's wanton play,
That glitters only to betray
To death—or else to misery.

Dream not of Friendship—there may be
A word, a smile, a grasp for thee—
But wait the hour of need, and see—
But wonder not—their fallacy.

Think not of Beauty—like the rest
It bears a lustre on its crest—
But short the time ere stands contest
Its falsehood—or its frailty.

Then cling no more so fondly on
The flowers of earth around the strewn—
They'll do awhile to sport upon,
But not to love so fervently.

COUSIN SALLY DILLARD.

SCENE—A Court of Justice in North Carolina.

A beardless disciple of Thomas arises and thus addresses the court: "May it please your worship, and you, gentlemen of the jury, since it has been my fortune (good or bad I will not say) to exercise myself in legal disquisitions, it has never before befallen me to be obliged to prosecute so direful, marked and malicious an assault—a more violent, willful, dangerous assault and battery; and finally a more atrocious breach of the peace it has seldom been your duty to pass upon, except shocking to benevolent feelings, as that which took place over at Captain Rice's in this county. But you will hear from the witness."

The witness being sworn, two or three were examined, and depose—one said that he had heard the noise and did not see the fight—another that he saw the row, but didn't know who struck first—and a third, that he was very drunk and couldn't say much about the scrimmage.

LAWYER CHOPS—I am very sorry, gentlemen, to have occupied your time with the stupidity of the witnesses examined. It arises, gentlemen, altogether from misapprehension on my part. Had I known, as I now do, that I had a witness in attendance, who was well acquainted with the circumstances of the case, and who was able to make himself clearly understood by the jury, I should not so long have trespassed on your time and patience. Come forward, Mr. Harris, and be sworn.

So forward came the witness, a fat, chuffy, looking man, a "lectle" corned, and took his corporal oath with an air.

CHOPS—Harris, we wish you to tell about the riot that happened the other day at Capt. Rice's, and as a good deal of time has been wasted in circumlocution, we wish you to be compendious, and at the same time as explicit as possible.

HARRIS—"Exactly"—giving the lawyer a knowing wink, and at the same time clearing his throat—"Captain Rice, he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dillard, she came over to our house and axed me if my wife she moutn't go. I told cousin Sally Dillard that my wife was poorly, being as she had a touch of the rheumatics in the hip, and the big swamp was up, for there had been a heap of rain lately, but howsomever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dillard, my wife she mout go. Well, cousin Sally Dillard then asked me if Mose he moutn't go. I told cousin Sally Dillard that Mose he was the foreman of the crap, and the crap was smartly in the grass; but howsomever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dillard, Mose he mout go."

CHOPS—In the name of common sense, Mr. Harris what do you mean by this rigmale? Do say what you know about the riot.

Witness—Captain Rice, he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dillard she came over to our house and axed me if my wife moutn't go. I told cousin Sally Dillard—

CHOPS—Stop, sir, if you please; we don't want to hear anything about cousin Sally Dillard and your wife—tell us about the fight at Rice's.

Witness—Well, I will sir, if you will let me.

CHOPS—Well, sir, go on.
Witness—Well, Captain Rice he gin a treat; and cousin Sally Dillard she came over to our house and axed me if my wife she moutn't go—

CHOPS—There it is again; witness, witness please to stop.

Witness—Well, sir, what do you want?

CHOPS—We want to know about the fight, and you must not proceed in this impertinent story. Do you know anything about the matter before the court?

Witness—To be sure I do.

CHOPS—Well, you go on and tell it—and nothing else.

Witness—Well, Captain Rice he gin a treat—

CHOPS—This is intolerable. May it please the court, I move that this witness be committed for a contempt; be seems to be trifling with this court.

Court—Witness, you are now before a court of justice, and unless you behave yourself in a more becoming manner, you will be sent to jail; so begin and tell what you know about the fight at Capt. Rice's.

Witness—(alarmed)—Well, gentlemen, Captain Rice he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dillard—

CHOPS—I hope this witness may be ordered into custody.

Court—(after deliberating)—Mr. Attorney the Court is of opinion that we may save time by telling the witness to go on in his own way. Proceed, Mr. Harris, with your story, but stick to the point.

Witness—Yea, gentlemen! well, Captain Rice he gin a treat, and cousin Sally Dillard she came over to our house and axed me if my wife she moutn't go. I told cousin Sally Dillard that my wife she was poorly, being as how she had the rheumatics in the hip, and the big swamp was up; but, howsomever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dillard, my wife she mout go. Well, cousin Sally Dillard then asked me if Mose he moutn't go. I told cousin Sally Dillard as how Mose he was the foreman of the crap, and the crap was smartly in the grass; but howsomever, as it was she, cousin Sally Dillard, Mose he mout go. So they goes on together, Mose, my wife and cousin Sally Dillard, and they come to the big swamp, and it was up, as I was telling you; but being as how there was a big log across the big swamp, cousin Sally Dillard and Mose, like gentle folks, they walked the log, but my wife like a darned fool pulled up her coats and waded right through—and that's all I know about the fight.

Man has two minutes and a half to live one to smile—one to sigh—and a half to love—for in the middle of this minute he dies.

But the grave is not deep—it is the shining tread of an angel that seeks us. When the unknown hand throws the last fatal dart at the head of man—that boweth his head, and the dart only lifts the crown of thorns from his wounds—Jean Paul.

If you cannot be happy in one way, be happy in another; and the faculty of dispositions, wants but little aid from philosophy, for health and good humor are almost the whole affair. Many run about after felicity like an absent man seeking for his hat while it is on his head or in his hand.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 25, 1846.

MEXICO.—The recent news from Mexico is of a very important nature, and the whole country will anxiously await the next arrival from there, as the forthcoming intelligence will probably settle the question as to whether the war will be prolonged to an indefinite period, or brought to a speedy close. The people of Mexico have become dissatisfied with Paredes and his Government, and it seems to be impossible for him to rally them effectually under his standard. A portion of them have already declared against him, and pronounced in favor of Santa Anna, who has returned from his exile at Havann. By the next arrival, we shall know how he was received at Vera Cruz, and what the effect of the pronouncement was at the city of Mexico. Santa Anna is a most extraordinary man, and probably has more control over the great mass of his countrymen, than any other President that ever ruled that distracted nation. We are strongly inclined to the opinion that Santa Anna's return will lead to a speedy peace; although he is rather too fond of war for the welfare of Mexico, still he is a shrewd man, and understands the policy of nations too well, to contend with the United States. He has travelled in this country, and is a warm admirer of our institutions, and knows our power, and he is evidently satisfied of the folly of attempting to fight us successfully. He is attached to his people, and ardently desires to make them free and happy, if he can; and he knows that in order to do this, he must be on friendly terms with the nation whom he is imitating.

The Supreme Court commences its August Term in this town, this morning, at 10 o'clock. We understand that there is a large docket of business to be disposed of, and that the Court will probably be occupied the week. There is some criminal business of importance, particularly one case of a young Irish girl who is charged with killing her infant. We shall give a report of all that is interesting during the Term.

The Boston Post says that the Fall River railroad is progressing rapidly to completion. It is now in operation from Fall River to Middleborough, and will be opened for regular travel from Braintree to Randolph on Wednesday next. The entire line will without doubt be completed in sixty days.

THE CALIFORNIA EXPEDITION.—Three merchant ships have been chartered to take out the New York Regiment to California. They are the Susan Drew, Loo Choo and Thos. H. Perkins, all Boston ships. The two first get 20,000 dollars each, and the latter $22,000. The expedition will not sail, it is said, until about the first of September.

FROM THE MORMON CAMP.—The captain of the steamer Tobacco Plant arrived with his boat at St. Louis on the 12 inst. from Fort Leavenworth, and reports that one thousand Mormons, in addition to the five hundred called for, had come to the fort, in hopes of being enrolled in the service of the United States, to follow Gen. Kearney's expedition to Santa Fe and New Mexico.

We learn from the Providence Gazette, that "Fire King" Engine Company No. 5, of that city, are to visit Newport one week from to-morrow, September 2d, and are to be accompanied by the Brigade Band. The Gazette bespeaks for them a hearty welcome by our firemen, and so do we. Give them a good reception, boys.

Ship Margaret, of this port, has been sold to Messrs. Baker, of New Bedford, and was taken in tow by the steamboat Massachusetts, of New Bedford, yesterday, bound for that place.

One week at the Wadawanuck is better than a month at Newport, or any other place along shore.—Norwich Republican.

Did the editor of the Republican ever spend more than two hours in Newport in his whole life?—and those two hours under unfavorable circumstances to form any idea of the place.

We learn from the New London Democrat, that the new steamer Atlantic was to have made an excursion to Newport yesterday, but we suppose the accident she met with last week, an account of which we published yesterday, detained her from coming. She may come here, when she gets repaired.

The United States ship Potomac, Commodore Connor, has been ashore on Green Island, near Vera Cruz, and all her guns had to be thrown overboard before she could be got off. It was thought that she had gone to Pensacola for repairs.

SINKING OF A STEAMBOAT AND LOSS OF SIX HUNDRED LIVES.—The Barcelona Journals contain details of a horrible catastrophe which took place a few days previous at Almeria. A detachment of troops, 600 in number, having to be transported to Barcelona, they were embarked on board a steamboat, which had scarce got out to sea, when owing to the number of men being disproportionate to her size, she gave a lurch and immediately sunk. Two men alone were saved.

It is generally believed that the decision of the Court of Inquiry was favorable to Gen. Gaines, but in consequence of some irregularity in the proceedings, a new court is to be ordered to meet in March next.

The ship Amazon is loading with ice at Boston for Havre—the first cargo ever shipped for France.

A LARGE PEACH.—The editor of the Albany Ga., Courier has been presented with a peach of the freestone kind, grown upon the plantation of Mr. Faircloth, of Baker county, measuring 10 7-8 inches in circumference and 3 1-3 inches in diameter, weighing 1-1/4 pounds. This is said to be comparatively a small specimen to some which have been plucked from the same tree.

We are happy to announce to our readers that Professor Tew has returned to this town, and will give the first lecture of a course this evening. He thoroughly understands his subject, and a rich treat may be anticipated.

Wednesday, the 19th, was the day appointed for the assembling at London of the World's Convention, for the purpose of promoting Christian union.

GOVERNOR OF OREGON.—Senator Semple, of Illinois, is to be appointed Governor of Oregon Territory, on the arrival of the proper time for making said appointment.

Lie or no lie, is the title of a new comedy written by a lady of New York.

An English paper states, that 31,000 English women die of consumption in a single year.

A certificate from the Hon. Samuel Quarles, who is well known throughout the N. E. States.

Mr. James Kidder, Jr.—Dear Sir—I have enclosed a certificate in recommendation of your Dan-dellion and Tomato Panacea, which you are at liberty to publish if you think proper.

To THE PUBLIC.—I have suffered much for a number of years last past with the Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, &c., and have taken various medicines, none of which effected a cure, until I took five bottles of James Kidder, Jr.'s Dan-dellion and Tomato Panacea, which, under the blessing of God, has restored me to comparative good health, being over 78 years of age. I can, with confidence, recommend said Panacea to the public as a valuable medicine. (Signed) SAMUEL QUARLES.

Owing to previous arrangements Manchester & brother will be under the necessity of closing their Daguerreotype Rooms, corner of Thames and Mary-streets, Newport, within a short time, (probably eight or ten days,) therefore would say to the good people of this place who wish to present their friends with an invaluable memento, that they can never do better than to give us a call soon. Young lady, bring in that venerable father and watchful mother, and secure a good likeness to-day, for to-morrow it may be too late. Mothers, bring in those little ones with curling hair and sparkling eyes; they will make pretty pictures, and then should they be taken from you, you can exclaim, in the language of the poet:

Gone to their rest, yet we would not recall them Back to this region of sorrow and pain; Gone to their rest, where no ill can befall them— Yet we have their likeness both perfect and plain.

From the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser.
A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LADY residing in W. street in this city, has received great and unexpected benefit from the use of that excellent specific RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP. Some few weeks since she was on a visit to some other relatives in South New Jersey, where she was very severely bitten by mosquitoes, being at the same time very much exposed to the scorching rays of the Sun, she experienced great pain, and irritation from the effects of the mosquito, and much annoyance from the unnatural darkness of her tanned complexion. We recommended her to use that excellent Medicated Compound, RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP, she complied with our request, and in three days there was not a single spot, blemish, pimple or blotch left upon her skin, and her complexion is now as fair as the Lily.

Ladies, secure without delay a cake of this inestimable Soap, it will purify your skin, improve your complexion and remove all disfigurements entirely from the surface of your system. Price 12-12 cents per cake. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR, Agent.

York, to the citizens and visitors of Newport, and will feel obliged to those who will honor her with a call, at Mr. ELISHA S. KENYON'S, corner of Thames and Young streets the honor to inform the public that, by a new and peculiar method, she extracts Hard and Soft Corns, Bunions, Callosities, &c., Without Cutting.

Madam B. does not attempt to offer a nostrum, requiring secrecy or faith to require its efficacy, but confidently assuring those who may suffer from troublesome and painful Corns, that they may have the satisfaction of carrying away their tormentor, their Corn, in their hands.

Madam B. has been practising in the U. States for six years, and in that time she has received testimonials from some of the most eminent ladies and gentlemen, as to the benefit and comfort which they have received since their feet have been attended to by her. The operation will not occupy more than 10 minutes, and the relief is so instantaneous that persons thus treated can put on their shoes and walk without the least inconvenience.

Madam B. has practised her profession for several years in Boston, New York, Germany, France, and England, and has acquired much skill, and great practical experience—a fact attested by numerous certificates from the most celebrated physicians both of Europe and America, as well as from the nobility and gentry of those countries, delivered to her after four month's cure.

Ladies and gentlemen will be waited upon at their residence.

Ladies and gentlemen who wish Madam B's services, are invited to call as soon as possible.

Madam B. has in her possession upwards of 1,500 certificates.

From the Philadelphia Enquirer and Courier RELIEF TO THE AFFLICTED.—We alluded a few days since to the remarkable, efficacious and painless method adopted by Madam Bernhard, of 459 Broadway, N. Y. and 151 Court street, Boston, in extracting Corns and curing troublesome Tumors of the feet. We are now induced to refer again to the subject, partly in consequence of more than one friend having called upon us to record their testimony as to the sudden and entire relief they have experienced from the operation of Professor; and chiefly because so many persons are in the habit of advertising remedies for Corns, &c., which are mere empiricism and pretence. The parties who are now in our office, and who have been under the treatment of Madam Bernhard, assures us that they did not experience the slightest pain during the process of extraction, and that it was accomplished with an almost magical celerity. We observe also that some of the most eminent Physicians, both of Boston and New York, as well as of this city, have given testimonials to the above effect to Madam Bernhard, the writers having experienced a relief from Corns, which had pained them for years. From the Boston Atlas.

Madam Bernhard, at 151 Court street, is said by those who have experienced relief at her hands, to effect a radical cure of the most inveterate corns. There is said to be no mistake about it. It is a great discovery, and we recommend all the afflicted to try.
